Description:

About the Author John Sherriff is the former CEO of Enron Europe, based in London, which was one of the largest commodity-trading organizations in the world. Enron traded in European, Australian, and Japanese electricity, European natural gas markets, and worldwide oil, credit, and metals markets. Prior to joining Enron in 1994, he was a vice president at American Hunter Energy, and before that, he acted as director of corporate sales at Pacific Gas & Electric Company in San Francisco. For the last 10 years, his business has been investing in commercial lawsuits with Lake Tahoe Financial, in which he buys a share of the plaintiff's potential proceeds in their litigation. This is a high-risk, high-reward business. John holds a B.S. in Mathematics and an M.S. in Computer Science from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo (earned in a prior millennium).
